

Apologetics Homework Assignment 7

[Special Guest Speaker in Class]

Noah's Flood is a major event in earth's history that has profoundly shaped the geologic record. In order to better understand how modern scientific evidence points to this event, it will be helpful to familiarize ourselves with the biblical account of it. You can find the account of Noah's Flood in Genesis 6-9.

Read Genesis 6:1-8

Memory Work:

Genesis 9:11: [God said to Noah:] "I establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of the flood, and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth."

Memorize the names of the books of the New Testament, in order, from Romans to Philemon (see back side for full list). The new books learned this week comprise the Pauline Epistles because they were written by Paul. Note that from now on, sections from the Old Testament will be given as extra credit work on all memory quizzes.
