1. What does God forbid in the Eighth Commandment?

C. _____

2. What does God require in the Eighth Commandment?

3. Read 1 Kings 21:8-14. What happened to Naboth as a result of false testimony against him?

4. Read Matthew 18:15. Instead of speaking badly behind your neighbor's back, what should you do if someone has wronged you and you want to talk about it?

5. Read James 1:14-15. Coveting is the first step in a terrible process. What is the final step of that process?

Memory Work:

The Eighth Commandment and its explanation:

You shall not give false testimony against your neighbor.

What does this mean? We should fear and love God so that we do not tell lies about our neighbor, betray him, slander him, or hurt his reputation, but defend him, speak well of him, and explain everything in the kindest way.

The Ninth Commandment and its explanation:

You shall not covet your neighbor's house

What does this mean? We should fear and love God so that we do not scheme to get our neighbor's inheritance or house, or get it in a way which only appears right, but help and be of service to him in keeping it.

The Tenth Commandment and its explanation:

You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, his manservant or maidservant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.

What does this mean? We should fear and love God so that we do not entice or force away our neighbor's wife, workers, or animals, or turn them against him, but urge them to stay and do their duty.

NOTE: You get a break this week from learning a new section of Bible book names, since there is so much to memorize from the catechism. There will still be an extra credit opportunity from the OT next week, though, so study up!
